

Nationwide Peanut Butter Recall

We, at Pine Valley Foods, have received phone calls concerning the recent peanut butter recall. Questions have been raised whether our product quality has been compromised. We are pleased to assure you that our product has, in no way, been affected by the recent Salmonella outbreak. Our peanut butter processor has confirmed they have no issues and pass on the report to you, our customer.

January 16, 2009

To whom it may concern:

Recently, there has been news of a Salmonella outbreak in peanut butter sold in food service distribution system. The issue has been tracked to peanut butter produced by Peanut Corporation of America in Lynchburg, VA.

We want to assure all of our customers that Hampton Farms and Jimbo's Jumbos are not involved in the outbreak or recall.

We make peanut butter in Severn and Edenton, NC production facilities. We have no issues at these locations. We produce peanut butter under our brand names of Hampton Farms and Jimbo's Jumbos as well as private label brands. No product we produce is involved with the recall in any way.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Regards,
Michael J. Jordan
Director of QA
Jimbo's Jumbos, Inc.
(252) 482-2222
mjordan@jimbosjumbos.com

Production of our product is steady as usual and we are pleased to continue to offer you the best quality cookie dough from Pine Valley Foods!

